Wednesday, July 29 | 10 a.m. – Noon

IN PERSON

In this session, attendees will explore how to choose the business entity that best fits their unique goals and needs. It will also cover the key tax and legal implications of operating as a sole proprietor, partnership, corporation, or limited liability company (LLC). Participants will gain a clear understanding of strategies to minimize personal liability for business debts and obligations.

Additionally, attendees will learn effective ways to use an LLC or corporation to protect personal assets, including strategies to prevent creditors from "piercing the corporate veil" and holding business owners personally liable.

Guest Speaker Attorney Gary Foltz has more than 30 years of experience helping entrepreneurs incorporate their small businesses.
