City of Upland Lemon Festival Postponed due to COVID-19

The City of Upland, in conjunction with The Learning Centers at Fairplex, is postponing the 2020 Upland Lemon Festival to July 31 – Aug. 2 due to government health restrictions on public events of 10 or more during the COVID-19 pandemic. While the City has not experienced any issues, out of an abundance of caution it has decided postponing the event is in the best interest of guests.

For more information and updates, please visit the Learning Centers at Fairplex website: <https://fairplex.com/ulf>

The Lemon Festival has been an important part of Upland tradition since 1997. What originally started as a small celebration of the city's citrus industry origins has grown into a town-wide affair including the Lemon Idol singing contest, delicious (and sometimes messy) food competitions, carnival rides, games and support of our local businesses.

The 2020 Upland Lemon Festival is produced by The Learning Centers at Fairplex. TLC is the community-focused, non-profit, philanthropic arm of Fairplex. Combining the event production expertise of the Fairplex team and the community commitment of TLC's educational programs ensures the success of the Upland Lemon Festival.

A portion of the proceeds will benefit designated non-profit organizations in the City of Upland through The Learning Centers at Fairplex.
