City of Upland Activity – CURFEW TERMINATED

The City of Upland wishes to notify the Public that the curfew enacted Monday June 1, 2020 and revised Wednesday June 3, 2020 has been terminated. This curfew served its purpose as a precautionary measure to protect the safety of its residents while protecting the rights of peaceful assembly and protest during daytime and also supported the Upland Police Department during the evening hours. The City of Upland wishes to extend its gratitude to the residents and businesses of Upland for their patience, support, and observance of the curfew. Together we are stronger and safer.
