

How to Identify a Mainline Leak

Identifying a Mainline Leak:

- There is a wet spot on an asphalt surface (typically in the street) that won't go away.
- There is a wet spot in the street or on an asphalt surface that appears to be getting larger.
- Water is bubbling up or gushing out of a crack in the street/asphalt.

